RELIEF IS REQUESTED NOT LATER THAN AUGUST 3, 2022.

The above-captioned debtor and debtor-in-possession (the "Debtor" or "FSS"), in the above-referenced chapter 11 case, hereby files this emergency motion (the "Motion") respectfully submits this Emergency Motion to Extend Time to File Schedules and Statements of Financial Affairs (the "Motion"). In support of the Motion, the Debtor submits and incorporates by reference the Declaration of Marc Schwartz in Support of Voluntary Petition and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration”), filed concurrently herewith. In further support of the Motion, the Debtor respectfully represents as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. On July 29, 2022 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor commenced the above captioned cases by filing voluntary petitions for relief under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code §§ 101, et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

2. The Debtor continues in the possession of its property and is operating and managing its businesses as debtor and debtor-in-possession pursuant to Section 1182(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. No request for a trustee or examiner has been made. No statutory committee of creditors has been appointed.

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this Motion under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue of this proceeding and this Motion are proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

5. The statutory bases for the relief sought in this Motion are 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 361, and 363 and Rule 4001(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

ESS’ BACKGROUND

6. Alex Jones began his career in the broadcasting industry fresh out of high school. Austin Public Access provided the forum from Alex’s first broadcast. In 1996 he transitioned to talk radio. After leaving talk radio in 1999, he started broadcasting over the internet with a handful of employees. Revenue was largely generated from advertising and the sale of books, T-shirts and videos.

7. What began as a family business continued to expand and in 2007 FSS was formed. The business continued to grow, adding a full-blown studio and employing over 60 people. By 2013, FSS started selling dietary supplements to its growing listener base.

8. FSS is presently engaged in the business of producing and syndicating Jones' radio and video talk shows and selling products targeted to Jones' loyal fan base via the Internet. Today, FSS produces Alex Jones' syndicated news/talk show (The Alex Jones Show) from Austin, Texas, which airs via the Genesis Communications Network on over 100 radio stations across the United States and via the internet through websites including Infowars.com.

9. On its Infowars.com¹ website today, FSS makes available to customers dietary supplements, ranging from Vitamin D3 Gummies, Ultimate Immune Support Pack, Pollen Block and other health products, including Tea Tree Shampoo. The website also has available books, t-shirts and other products Jones advertises during his radio talk show. The vast majority of FSS revenues comes from sales of dietary supplements which have traditionally been supplied by PQPR Holdings Limited, LLC ("PQPR"), an affiliated entity.

10. As of July 1, 2022, FSS employed a workforce of 58 individuals, the majority of whom had direct reporting relationship to Alex Jones. In one building in Austin, Texas, FSS has four studios. This is the building where Jones produces his shows, including The Alex Jones Show. An adjacent building contains administrative offices and customer support. In a separate location in Austin, Texas, FSS has a building where warehousing and product sales fulfillment takes place. All of the studios and offices are in leased space.

11. Since inception, Alex Jones has been a "single talent business", to wit, without Alex Jones and his show, there would neither be an InfoWars nor any internet sales. Despite the rapid growth in the scale, diversity of operations and revenue, FSS remained a family run business and did not retain professional management or install professional management systems. FSS failed to bring on board the necessary management skills to manage what was once a small family business but had become a $70 to $80 million enterprise. The Debtor and its employees continued to run the business with an inverted T structure, as though it was still a family business.

12. In 2022, Alex Jones retained professionals to evaluate the status of FSS. Since May 2022, FSS has retained W. Marc Schwartz (“Schwartz” or “CRO”) as its Chief Restructuring Officer, with broad powers to review the company’s past financial performance, analyze the condition of FSS’s books and records and evaluate whether FSS is a business that can be reorganized. Schwartz retained his firm Schwartz Associates to perform various accounting and forensic work associated with his mandate.

13. In addition, FSS has retained Jeffery Shulse as its Business Manager. He has been parachuted into FSS’s offices in Austin to (a) implement viable accounting and financial management functions; (b) implement sorely needed internal accounting controls and, (c) establish uniform personnel policies.

14. Throughout the review conducted by the CRO and his team, they have been given complete access to FSS employees, books and records. Among the preliminary conclusions reached in Schwartz’ analysis of FSS are:

- (a) Although the company had a controller and two bookkeepers (none of which appear to have any formal accounting background), the 2021 general ledger had not been completed and the books for that period were not closed;
- (b) Few transactions had been recorded in the 2022 general ledger;
- (c) No financial statements were produced for the company for the 18 months preceding

Schwartz' engagement;

- (d) The bank accounts had not been reconciled in 2021 or 2022; and
- (e) Internal accounting controls were completely inadequate, including lack of segregation of duties, absence of written monthly, quarterly and annual closing schedules, lack of supervisory review of key accounting functions, including vendor set up, bank reconciliations, inventory reconciliations, or intercompany billings;
- (f) Payments to vendors were debited to an expense account, but not to the specific vendor account; and
- (g) Credit card transactions were not recorded to specific expense accounts.

15. Since their engagement, the CRO and his team have closed the books for 2021 and made significant progress fixing past bookkeeping omissions and oversights. As a result of these actions, the CRO has a vastly improved understanding of FSS's financial standing and its ability to operate profitably going forward. Equally importantly, they have renegotiated business terms with PQPR on the allocation of proceeds from product sales to be more favorable to FSS.

16. Because of the state of FSS's books the information required to complete the Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs is only now becoming available to the CRO. Further the attention required to evaluate and refocus the Debtor's operations and the attention required to prepare for the commencement of this chapter 11 case has captured the CRO's time and attention leaving less time available to prepare the Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs.

RELIEF REQUESTED

17. Section 1116(3) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that in a small business case, the debtor in possession shall "timely file all schedules and statements of financial affairs, unless the court, after notice and a hearing, grants an extension, which shall not extend such period to a date later than 30 days after the date of the order for relief, absent extraordinary and compelling circumstances.” 11 U.S.C. § 1116(3). Bankruptcy Code 521(a) and Bankruptcy Rules 1007(b) and (c) require a debtor to file its schedules of assets and liabilities and its statement of financial affairs with the Court within 14 days of the petition date.

18. While the Debtor has endeavored to file its Schedules and Statement of Affairs within the time allotted, it will be unable to do so for the reasons stated above. The Debtor requests that the Court extend the time to file its Schedules and Statements of Affairs for an additional fifteen (15) days for cause shown as provided in Bankruptcy Code §1116(3).

NO PREVIOUS REQUEST

19. No prior motion for the relief requested herein has been made by the Debtor to this or any other court.

EMERGENCY CONSIDERATION

20. The Debtor requests emergency consideration of this Motion on August 3, 2022 or as soon thereafter as the Court’s schedule will allow. The Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs would need to be filed on August 12, 2022, absent the relief requested in the Motion and determination of the Motion will enable the CRO and the Debtor’s professionals to properly allocate resources among the various matters requiring attention in the early parts of this chapter 11 case.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Debtor moves this Court enter the Order substantially in the form attached hereto extending the time to file its Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs until August 29, 2022, and granting the Debtor such other and further relief to which it may be justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of July, 2022.
